THE RANCH AT LAGUNA BEACH

The Ranch at Laguna Beach is set within a secluded canyon, where the landscape creates a natural sense of privacy. Fire pits, a serene spa, outdoor dining at the on-site Harvest restaurant, led by chef Kyle St. John, and low-lit pathways contribute to an atmosphere that feels intentionally intimate. Suites and cottages favor natural materials and understated design, allowing the setting to take center stage. It's a retreat designed for disconnecting together. theranchlb.com
